AITUTAKI

Nestled 140 nautical miles north of Rarotonga, the island of Aitutaki boasts a breathtaking lagoon painted in shades of milky green and light blue, complemented by silky white sandbars and uninhabited islets (motus) adorned with palm-fringed beaches. Aitutaki comprises 15 small motus and a main volcanic island that rises 123 meters above sea level. This idyllic haven is home to approximately 1,700 inhabitants. The main island, measuring 9 kilometers in length and 2.5 kilometers at its widest point, occupies the lagoon's northwestern region.

AITUTAKI PRIVATE DAY TOUR

Price ranges from NZ$12,620 if 1 person travelling to NZ$15,951 for up to 7 people travelling

By private jet, we take you on an exclusive Private Day-Tour to experience the breath-taking Aitutaki lagoon.

Our standard package includes:

- Return VIP Airport Transfers on both Rarotonga and Aitutaki
- Return Private Jet Flights (Rarotonga / Aitutaki / Rarotonga)
- Ei Meet & Greet on Arrival into Aitutaki
- Private Island Tour of Aitutaki
- Private Boat Charter and Lagoon Cruise on Marguerite Cruises
- Freshly prepared Buffet Lunch on one of Aitutaki's uninhabited motus

We can customise your itinerary to include other water activities such as lagoon or ocean fishing, whale watching (July - October) or water sports should you wish.

**The Jet can only carry up to 7 passengers. For groups of 8 or more, a larger aircraft will be required which we can arrange.

MARGUERITE CRUISES

Embark on an unforgettable journey with Marguerite Cruises, venturing across Aitutaki's fascinating lagoon to uncover the wonders of its underwater realm and encounter an array of tropical marine life. Driven by a deep commitment to safeguarding the lagoon's pristine beauty, these tours offer an exhilarating and wondrous experience as you explore the depths of Aitutaki's aquatic paradise. Set foot on some of the untouched motus, including the celebrated One Foot Island. Accompanying you on this adventure are two seasoned guides and crew members who are dedicated to crafting an awe-inspiring day. Indulge in a delectable BBQ lunch prepared with the utmost care, featuring fresh fish, seasonal salads, and a symphony of tropical fruits.
